

Biography – Justice Peter Bawden

Justice Bawden was a proud member of the TLA Board of Directors at the time of his appointment to the Superior Court in October 2017. His Honour spent many happy hours working in the TLA library in the years preceding his appointment and still describes it as the best working law library in the city. Justice Bawden was assigned to the Criminal Team at 361 University when the pandemic struck in March 2020. Since that time, he has presided by Zoom over bail reviews, section 469 bail applications, judicial pre-trial conferences, and lengthy criminal trials. He describes himself as a guarded optimist regarding the future of virtual criminal proceedings.
