

Working Together, Remotely – Managing and Leading Through COVID and Beyond

June 22, 2021

In this practical session, leading lawyers and expert law practice advisors share lessons learned and tips to date from our rapid shift to virtual practice, with a focus on how we can make our practices work better for ourselves, our teams and our clients. Speakers will address the ups and downs that lawyers and firms are experiencing in remote practice settings, and share tips and best practices on a range of practice and personal management topics including:

- Managing people, teams and your clients remotely
- Maintaining your values / culture while remote
- Managing processes and leveraging your tech
- Effectively setting boundaries within the firm and with clients.
